Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. Fridays are days of abstinence but Catholics may substitute special acts of charity or piety on this day.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.
