Why Repent?

(Excerpts From Deacon Peter's 1st Week of Lent Homily)
Part 2 of 3 Series- Our relationships with others

"Repentance is a good way to reflect on our relationships with others.

We are not solitary beings. You have a lot of relationships with others such as: family, colleagues, friends... You have an individual relation with each of them. As a wife or husband, do you fulfill your duty to your partner? As parents, are you a good example for your children? Do you educate them according to the Church's teaching?

During the penitential act that we professed in the mass, do you confess to almighty God, and to your brothers and sisters your great sin in thought, in our word, and in what you have done and in what you have failed to do? Lent is a good time for us to go to a quiet place and think about our relationships with the people around us and to humbly acknowledge our mistakes, and make the determination to change our life for the better. Once we change our lives and change our view of those around us, we will recognize the good in others. We begin to live a more loving optimistic life, contributing to building good things.

I think that when we die, at the final judgment, God doesn't ask how many cars we have? How many houses do we own? How much money do we have? He just asks: how did you love your brothers and sisters?"

To be continued on the next bulletin issue . . .

ShareLife Sunday is March 17. Our parish goal for this year's campaign is $127,000.00.

You bring love and hope to young mothers through ShareLife

Many young women who are unexpectedly pregnant don't know where to turn for help. Through your support for ShareLife, our agencies ensure they have the resources they need to keep their education on track, provide their babies a healthy start, and create a bright future.

"I have no words to describe what it means to be a recipient of your generosity," shares Arielle, a grateful young mother you support through Vita Centre. "I have a better mental state now. I know that my baby is healthy because of it, too."

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website www.stanthonyofpadua.ca, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Thank you for your continued support.
